

The Right Age for Baby Needles

Based on the NT Childhood Immunisation Schedule

Protect your children from serious diseases by getting their free baby needles (vaccinations) at the right time

Age		How many needles	Recommended needles to protect against these diseases
BIRTH	In hospital 		Hepatitis B
	6 WEEKS 		Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis (Whooping Cough), Hepatitis B, Poliomyelitis (Polio), Haemophilus influenzae type b
		Pneumococcal
		Meningococcal B (Aboriginal and some medically at risk children)
 ORAL		Rotavirus
4 MONTHS 		Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis (Whooping Cough), Hepatitis B, Poliomyelitis (Polio), Haemophilus influenzae type b
		Pneumococcal
		Meningococcal B (Aboriginal and some medically at risk children)
	 ORAL	Rotavirus
6 MONTHS 		Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis (Whooping Cough), Hepatitis B, Poliomyelitis (Polio), Haemophilus influenzae type b
		Pneumococcal (Aboriginal and some medically at risk children)
Influenza vaccine – Yearly – from 6 months of age 2 doses – (1 month apart) when having influenza vaccine for the first time. 1 dose each year after that
12 MONTHS 		Measles, Mumps, Rubella
		Pneumococcal
		Meningococcal ACWY
		Meningococcal B (Aboriginal and some medically at risk children)
18 MONTHS 		Measles, Mumps, Rubella and Chicken Pox
		Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis (Whooping Cough)
		Haemophilus influenzae type b
		Hepatitis A (Aboriginal children)
4 YEARS 		Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis (Whooping Cough), Poliomyelitis (Polio)
		Hepatitis A (Aboriginal children)
		Pneumococcal (Aboriginal and some medically at risk children)

For more information contact the NT Immunisation Register Information Line on 8922 8315

If you need an interpreter when reading this poster, please ask a staff member.

www.health.nt.gov.au